Time To Carry On

Vince Gill

Painted as the victim
He said you caused it all
Lying to convince 'em
So you would take the fall
You walked out with nothin'
Hopin' for some peace of mind
The pain is almost over
The hurt is nearly gone
No more lookin' over your shoulder
It's time to carry on
The scars won't last forever
The truth will take their place
Angry words will be forgotten
Contempt will fade away

The promise of tomorrow
It will always remain
The pain is almost over
The hurt is nearly gone
No more lookin' over your shoulder
It's time to carry on
The promise of tomorrow
'T will always remain
The pain is almost over
The hurt is nearly gone
No more lookin' over your shoulder
It's time to carry on
It's time to carry on
