

Take It In

Hot Chip

The wheel of fortune stops at 6 o'clock
So what am I to do until midnight?
An hourglass may grab my attention
But I am in the need of reflection

And oh-oh, my heart has flown to you just like a dove
It can fly, it can fly
And oh-oh, please take my heart and keep it close to you
Take it in, take it in

My heart attack took place after midnight
But I was in the need of attention
Surgery took place in the half light
By then I was no more than a phantom

And oh-oh my heart has flown to you just like a dove
It can fly, it can fly
And oh-oh please take my heart and keep it close to you
Take it in, take it in

And oh-oh my heart has flown to you just like a dove
It can fly, it can fly
And oh-oh please take my heart and keep it close to you
Take it in, take it in

And oh-oh my heart has flown to you just like a dove
It can fly, it can fly
And oh-oh please take my heart and keep it close to you
Take it in, take it in
