

The War

Jennie Abrahamson

I wasn't ready
And didn't want to hear the call
What's coming at me
Shining writings on the wall
But leaving the moment
Be the ones that change it all
Take it to the edge off
Push it over, make it fall
Is there all you don't come in
I come to see by the war
I heard my sisters are bleeding
I come to see by the war
I heard the newer voices
I come to see by the war
I brought a match for the fire
I come to see by the war
Thought I wasn't ready
The veil was dropped before my eyes
Saw it all so clearly
Saw the truth, the sudden lights
We are the moment
We're the ones that can change it all
Take it to the edge off
Push it over, make it fall
Is there all you don't come in
I come to see by the war
I heard my sisters are bleeding
I come to see by the war
I heard the newer voices
I come to see by the war
I brought a match for the fire
I come to see by the war
Is there all you don't come in
I come to see by the war
I heard my sisters are bleeding
I come to see by the war
Is this the revolution
I come to see by the war
I brought a match for the fire
I come to see by the war
