Numb

Leon Majcen

I'm too tired to feel the pain that I've been livin' in A rugged sense I'm drifting from I dread the day that I wake up and start to feel the things I feel
'Cause the things I feel are the things I fear

And I'd rather be numb
Like I said without a doubt
I'd rather be numb
Cause there ain't no other options I feel
that bring me no harm
And I know you know the pain I'm in

The only tears that I've ever cried are the tears that come from you
The only lie that I've ever said is when I said I don't love you, yeah
The only pain I've ever felt is the heartbreak you gave to me
And I'd have never let you go 'cause I doubt you, you know that

I'd rather be numb
Like I said without a doubt
I'd rather be numb
'Cause there ain't no other options I feel
that bring me no harm
And I know you know the pain I'm in

I don't want to be upset, I don't want to be lost, I don't want to be alone
I want my life back, I want to get along with the ones I know
The world is out to get me, and I'm just part of a joke
Then the jokes on me, I'm feeling lost (babe)

But I'd rather be numb
Like I said without a doubt
I'd rather be numb
'Cause there ain't no other options
I fear that bring me no harm
And I know you know the pain I'm in

And I'd rather be numb
Like I said without a doubt
I'd rather be numb
'Cause there ain't no other options I feel

that bring me no harm
And I know you know the pain I'm in.
