

Still in Love With You

Trampled By Turtles

You can call it what you want to babe.
Say right or wrong but itâ€™s all the same.
Why do you have to talk that way when Iâ€™m still in love with you?

And no matter what I should have done,
It's cold outside and honey youâ€™re the one.
Give me time and I'll set things right.
Cause Iâ€™m still in love with you.

Well I listen to the rain outside.
Walkinâ€™ home in the pale moonlight,
Lord this town is out of sight.
And Iâ€™m still in love with you.

But I lit them bridges and I watched them burn,
And oh my God you think Iâ€™d learn.
Iâ€™m still the same till my dyinâ€™ day,
And Iâ€™m still in love with you.

Thereâ€™s a whisper in the trees sometimes.
It comes and goes baby thatâ€™s all right,
Glass full of water and a glass full of wine,
And Iâ€™m still in love with you.

And you can haul it off in some town somewhere.
If I donâ€™t see it honey I donâ€™t care.
Pardon me if I tend to stare.
But Iâ€™m still in love with you.

Lyrics submitted by Brandon.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>