Satellite

Eddie Vedder

Its no shame that Love's a game that I can only play with you what I'm saying is I'm here waiting for youI've seen the light I'm satisfied that the brightest star thats you Satelite I'm holding tight Beaming back to youDays turn into Night turns into Days turn into today
Don't think I'm out playin cause I'm inside wating for youI've felt the light I'm satisfied that
the highest high is you Satelite I'm holding tight
Beaming back to youDon't you worry
I beleive your story
You were put away
for something you didn't do But I'm waiting
I've been saving my love...
