

Song for Ireland

Mary Black

Walking all the day near tall towers where falcons build their nests Silver winged they fly, they know the call of freedom in their breasts saw Black Head against the sky where twisted rocks run down to the sea

Living on your western shore, saw summer sunsets, asked for more I stood by your Atlantic sea and I sang a song for Ireland Talking all the day with true friends, who try to make you stay

Telling jokes and news, singing songs to pass the night away Watched the Galway salmon run like silver dancing darting in the sun
Living on your western shore saw summer sunsets, asked for more
I stood by your Atlantic sea and I sang a song for Ireland Drinking all the day in old pubs where fiddlers love to play

Someone touched the bow, he played a reel, it seemed so fine and gay Stood on Dingle beach and cast, in wild foam we found Atlantic Bass Living on your western shore, saw summer sunsets asked for more
I stood by your Atlantic sea and I sang a song for Ireland Dreaming in the night, I saw a land where no one had to fight

Waking in your dawn, I saw you crying in the morning light Lying where the Falcons fly, they twist and turn all in you e'er blue sky
Living on your western shore, saw summer sunsets asked for more
I stood by your Atlantic sea and I sang a song for Ireland
