How's My Hair

McBusted

Dude, don't lie to me
Tell me straight, don't lie to me
I haven't seen her for a while
Am I in denial
Or am I having a melt downI just don't know anymore
When did I give a damn
This is not who I amHow's my hair
No it's not like me to even care but
Do you swear It looks alright
Cause tonight she's gonna be there
How's my hair
She makes me careDude, don't frighten me
If it looks bad,just lie to me
We're like walking through the door now, I'm so insecure now
And unusually nervous
Cause I just don't know anymore
When did I give a damn
This is not who I amHow's my hair
No it's not like me to even care but
Do you swear It looks alright
Cause tonight she's gonna be there
How's my hair
She makes me careI comb it to the left
I comb it to the right
I try it sticky up but it just don't feel rightHow's my hair
No it's not like me to even care but
Do you swear It looks alright
Cause tonight she's gonna be there
How's my hair
She makes me careTell me, how's my hair
Tell me, how's my hair
Tell me, how's my hair
She's gonna be there
Tell me, how's my hair
