

Each Day With You

Martin Nievera

Flowers for you from this lovely evening Though they have no words they share my feelings;As we walk along the avenue, Pardon me, I just can't help staring at you.When I look into those sparkling eyes,
It float in the air and wonder in paradise;
You give my heart a source of inspiration,
Your beauty is beyond imagination.CHORUS:You are the one
The only one I desire,
When we touch,
When we're one you light the fire;The seasons we share Hand in hand, there seems to be no time, Each day with you becomes a Valentine.Time must go on and so must we Moments slip away but the memories;
One day as we look back with all this treasure, Candle light that shines beyond forever.(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE)Each day with you becomes a Valentine.
Your beauty is beyond imagination.(REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE, 2X)Each day with you becomes
Valentine.(REPEAT CHORUS FADING)
