

Each Day With You

Martin Nievera

Flowers for you from this lovely evening Though they have no words they share my feelings; As we walk along the avenue, Pardon me, I just can't help staring at you. When I look into those sparkling eyes,
It float in the air and wonder in paradise;
You give my heart a source of inspiration,
Your beauty is beyond imagination. CHORUS: You are the one
The only one I desire,
When we touch,
When we're one you light the fire; The seasons we share Hand in hand, there seems to be no time, Each day with you becomes a Valentine. Time must go on and so must we Moments slip away but the memories;
One day as we look back with all this treasure, Candle light that shines beyond forever. (REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE) Each day with you becomes a Valentine.
Your beauty is beyond imagination. (REPEAT CHORUS EXCEPT LAST LINE, 2X) Each day with you becomes
Valentine. (REPEAT CHORUS FADING)
