

Spunky

Confusion

Spunky don't like her uniform

It never fit so good

Going back to the orphanage

And the place where her garage once stoodWell it's a free-for-all, free-for-all, free-for-all

It's a free-for-all you and me

And if you don't like what they are telling you

You can't teach a blind man to see, well I can seeSpunky looks good in her bright red wig

Eating chocolate chip mint ice cream

A cat named Lola with a violent past

Is balled-up asleep 'cross her kneesAnd it's a free-for-all, free-for-all, free-for-all

It's a free-for-all you and me

One day the world will be ready for you

And wonder how they didn't seeSpunky knows she can save the world

In her own little way

Turning in her old uniform

'Cause you know it really didn't pay'Cause it's a free-for-all, free-for-all, free-for-all

It's a free-for-all you and me

I'll walk through the world with your name on my tongue

And your picture etched on my screen
