Backstabbin'

Sloan

There's one thing, then another thing
Building up into a mountain of annoying
You keep scratching and unattracting
And shining light on everything that I am lackingThen you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
And there's nothing I can say about itBackstabbin', yeah backstabbin'Change the pitch, flick the switch,
Flatten all the buttonsBackstabbin', yeah backstabbin'Make something new from the truth
Everything from nothingBackstabbin', yeahThen you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
And there's nothing I can say about itBackstabbin', back, backstabbin'Then you turn around and give me that look, yeah
Backstabbin' with a positive hook, yeah
