

Will I Want To

Buddy Melton & Milan Miller

it was hard at first then,
it got easier then,
it got hard again,
i guess that's how its gonna be

living without you, tell me,
how is it living without me?

i go places where and i see faces there where,
for a moment i think yes, but no,
it couldn't be?

tell me do you ever,
turn around and think that you see me?

will i ever be who i, used to be around you?
and if i, have a chance to, dance a dance without you,

will i want to?

i have traveled highways
i have wandered back roads
i have walked the sidewalks of these lonesome city streets trying to lose you tell me,

how did you do losing me?

and if i, have a chance to, dance a dance without you,

will i want to?

it was hard at first then,
it got easier then,
it got hard again,

i guess that's how its gonna be

living without you, tell me,
how is it living without me?

tell me do you ever
turn around and think that you see me?

i keep trying to lose you tell me,
how did you do losing me?

will i ever be who i, used to be around you?
and if i, have a chance to, dance a dance without you,

will i want to?
