

Disappearing

Screaming Trees

Don't you try to find me any more, I want to stay
Outside of your world this time you've thrown it all away That was one mistake I never thought you'd make Once you walk the path that has no end Close the door and think awhile when you are all alone
Staring into nothingness your eyes have turned to atone Return, to yesterday, there is no easy way
Once you walked away, but now you stand, yeah Faded out of memories and moments that you took Locked away inside a box, never thought you would Follow it down and back, disappearing in your own tracks
Don't you think you've had enough of that? Yeah
