

Palm Springs

The Acorn

We coulda been driftin. We coulda been awake.

We never noticed the difference between the give and the take.

Cuz I know what I'm wondering, and there's no point in questioning whether I wanna be here. I just wanna be here. Yer keeping me waiting, but I'm immune to the rest.

We could go undercover, or be in our Sunday best.

Cuz the coastline is crumbling; it's a fine way of settling
