

Say More Words

The Daily News

Arguably I'm just the best damn loser you'll ever see,
I've got to much complacency even though I'm not quite sure what that means,
I've got enough knowledge to find my way across the world,
Or at least across my drive way,
At least I'll never be that guy,
Who drives naked down the highway,
Although that might be cool,
To be taken as a fool (for once),
Wouldn't you say that this was perfect for a girl like me,
And a boy like you,
Well, sometimes I over stumble my words,
That's clear to see so, Oh girl,
You know you look so fine,
Oh say more words,
I'll never get you off my mind for sure,
Girl, you know you speak so well,
Oh say more words,
You know I won't ever tell, Undoubtedly I'm just the biggest doubter you'll ever see,
I'll just choose, pachelbel, Indeed,
For my disposition symphony,
Because in my head I'll repeat things when I'm dead, Oh girl,
You know you speak so well,
Oh say more words,
You know I won't ever tell a soul,
Girl, you know you look so fine,
Oh say more words,
I'll never ever get you off my mind,
