Is It You

:Wumpscut:

Here in the dark
Is no light at all
No orientation
No shadows fallHere in the dark
I reach out for you
Sensing fear
Have I lost youIs it you
Is it youI see no way out
I just hear your voice
It seems so dead, too cold for you
Too cold for you to be aliveI hesitate
To trust your voice
Sounding so unreal
It sounds like if somebody forces youIs it you
Is it youMy hand stretches out
Now I feel your hand
It is motionless
Oh my God, it's deadThe light is on now
The devil jeers at me
He drags your corpse across barbed hooks
And takes away my soul with laughterIs it you
Is it youIs it you
Is it youIs it you
Is it you
