Nobody's Child

Hank Snow

I was slowly passing an orphan's home one day
And stop there for a moment just to watch the children play
Alone a boy was standing and when I asked him why
He turned with eyes that couldn't see and he began to cryI'm nobody's child, I'm nobody's child
I'm like a flower just growing wild
No mommy's kisses and no daddy's smiles
Nobody wants me, I'm nobody's childI just can't seem to understand
Why the folks all pass me by
'Cause I know that it's true that God takes Little blind children with him in the skyAnd they tell me that I'm oh so pretty
And they seem to like my big curls of gold
But then they take some other little child
And I'm left here all alonePeople come for children and take them to their own
But they all seem to pass me by and leave me here alone
I know they'd like to take me but when they see I'm blind
They always take some other child and I am left behindNo mother's arms to hold me or soothe me when I cry
Sometimes it gets so lonely here I wish that I could die
I'd walk the streets of heaven where all the blinds can see
And just like for the other kids there'd be a home for me(I'm nobody's child, I'm nobody's child)
(I'm like a flower just growing wild)
No mommy's kisses and no daddy's smiles
Nobody wants me, I'm nobody's child
