The Kiss

Radney Foster

Well it's over and gone
Girl tell me the truth
Don't try to lie about it
Someone else has been with you
Judas couldn't hide it any better than this
The secret's out darling
Betrayed by a kiss
Well it's right here with us baby
Though it really can't be seen
It's the smell of his seduction
And it makes it hard to breathe
A tender touch can hit you so much harder than a fist
Not a single word was spoken
You've been betrayed by a kiss
Where did we go wrong
And blow that candle outHow'd love so strongLearn to fill a house with doubts
And how long have I been so blind
And been the odd man outSOLO
