An Oyster, A Pearl

Sarah Blasko

Write what you know and let your feelings show,
Be who you are and give all that you've got,
It's easy, and as hard as this, though you try to resistIt's just the way of this world,
Let it be your oyster, your pearl,
Make you an honest girl,
Let it be your oyster, your pearlBe just where you are and content with your lot,
Oh, but try to look far as you wish on a star,
It's easy, and as hard as this, you must try to persistCause it's just the way of this world,
Let it be your oyster, your pearl,
Make you an honest girl,
Let it be your oyster, your pearlOoh ooh ooh ooh oh ooh ooh oh (x2)It's just the way of this this world,
Let it be your oyster, your pearl,
Make you an honest girl,
Let it be your oyster, your pearlIt's just the way of this this world,
Let it be your oyster, your pearl,
Make you an honest girl,
Let it be your oyster, your pearl
Let it be your oyster, your pearl
Let it be your oyster, your pearl
