

Better Come Soon

Brad Nailer

You had
Better come soon my darling
Better come soon my darling
Youâ€™d better come soon my darling

You are
Gonna be late for work again
Itâ€™s the seventh time this month so far
Youâ€™re gonna get fired I just know you are
So you had
Better come soon my darling

You are
Jerking around like a fish on a line
With your mouth wide open and your eyes rolled back
You look like youâ€™re having a heart attack
So you had
Better come soon my darling

There are
Born-again knocking on our front door
I think I got a splinter in my left knee
And Iâ€™m starting to lose my woodie
So you had
Better come soon my darling

You better come soon my darling
You better come soon my darling
You better come soon my darling
You had
Better come soon my darling
