Chasing You

Shannon McArthur

head, up against the glass watching the streetlights pass missing you and all the little things you used to doseat is empty on your side cuz' I couldn't swallow pride and let you in it'd be different if I had the chance againdon't tell me that you're doin' fine now don't tell me, that I'm not on your mind one bit don't tell me that ya think its over as long as the sky is blue, girl, I'll be chasing youlove, you can do it well but I've shot this one down to hell and shut you out now you're the only thing that I can think aboutgirl, I need ya all the time and I'm hoping that you'll be mine and take me in and I promise I won't let you down againdon't tell me that you're doin' fine now
as long as the sky is blue, girl, I'll be chasing youand girl I won't stop nothing left to do you make my heart drop you make my heart dropevery day is better waking up beside you anything you need, baby I'll provide you arms around me and I'll crack the window baby we could take it slow baby we could take it slowdon't tell me that you're doin' fine now
as long as the sky is blue, girl, I'll be chasing youbaby I'll be chasing you baby I'll be chasing you
