Can I See Your Face?

Tree63

Sitting in my room, waiting for a train
What will bring me back into Your arms again
I've shuffled through them all and every time You won
Is there nothing new underneath the sun?I don't want to ask you for a sign
I don't need all my tears turned into wine
And even though I love you anyway, yeah yeahCan I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
Jesus, nothing's standing in Your place
Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?Standing in the cold, searching the stars
Trying to figure out just where You are
Get me on my knees, shake me to the bone
Leave a message on my answer phoneI'm sorry, I strained my eyes to see
Some things should remain a mystery
But who put that desire in my heart?Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
Jesus, nothing's standing in Your place
Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?Touch my eyes, fill my head
My brand new shoes, heavy as lead
I want to see Your face, want to touch those scars
Tell me where You've gone?Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
You the author of my faithCan I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
Can I see Your face?
Your face, Your faceCan I see Your face?
Your beautiful face?
Jesus, can I see Your face?
See Your face? Aah haa, I can
