

Caribbean Blue

Big Mountain

I wanna know
Where did she go?
I'm in a limbo, oh
Where did she go? Oh, yeah You left me Caribbean Blue
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you
Left in my paradise gone wrong
And one more sunset to face on my own I drawn my sorrows in the garden of despair
Trying to wash away the memories of you there
I walk the beaches and I tell it to the moon
But there's no salvation here, the morning comes too soon You left me Caribbean Blue, oh yeah
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you, no
Left in my paradise gone wrong, oh baby
And one more sunset to face on my own You gave me so much that I can't replace
Now it's cold and lonely here in this summer place
Scarred by the problems of an ego that's been burned
So many lessons now that a fool must surely learn You left me Caribbean Blue, oh, blue, blue, blue
I've got the sunshine, but I haven't got you, no
Left in my paradise gone wrong
And one more sunset to face on my own On my own
A prisoner of the memories
I can find, no
On this tropical night I watch the ocean and I search inside myself
What did I do to make you run to someone else?
It's funny how you want the things you haven't got
I heard that time can heal but still the pain won't stop You left me Caribbean Blue, oh yeah
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you, no
Left in my paradise gone wrong, yes you did
And one more sunset to face on my own You left me Caribbean Blue, oh blue
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you, no
Left in my paradise gone wrong
And one more sunset to face on my own You left me Caribbean blue
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you
Left in my paradise gone wrong
And one more sunset to face on my own You left me Caribbean Blue
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you
Left in my paradise gone wrong
And one more sunset to face on my own You left me Caribbean Blue
I've got the sunshine but I haven't got you
