

Taking Me Home

Aaron Lafette

Sheee, she ain't taking me home tonight
I won't pick up the phone tonight
I don't need you anymore I got her Since you've been gone astray
I've been thinking old time you've been gone away
I kinda miss those days, I kinda miss those days
Every time I see you out, yeah
You restore my faith, oh silly me, haha
But you know the truth it is
There ain't no hope in us
You know I be lying to myself
If I called it love, love, love,
Another night endeavor with my alcohol level make me sleep
Ain't that a bitch, ain't that a bitch
But I won't tell her what's on my mind
Sheeee, she ain't taking me home tonight
I won't pick up the phone tonight
I don't need you anymore I got her
I got her, whoa, yeah Ever since I've missed your calls, I've been a lot better off
Cause it ain't my loss
Now I can't lie I kept your picture, yeah
But it ain't on my wall, it ain't on my wall
Cause the last thing I remember's
When you said that you would never
Let me go
How could you be so cold, cold?
Know these tears won't last forever
Now you want us back together
And you say that you just need me one last time, time
But I won't tell her what's on my mind
Sheeee, she ain't taking me home tonight
I won't pick up the phone tonight
I don't need you anymore I got her
I got her, whoa, yeah And I said, wo ho ho ho ow
And she makes me feel so good, wo ho ho ho ow
She brought me breakfast to my bed, wo ho ho ho ow
... bake and toast and scrambled eggs, aha, wo ho ho ho ow
Yeah, alright Sheeeeeee, she ain't taking me home tonight
I won't pick up the phone tonight
I don't need you anymore

I got her
And everything's so right baby, yeahSheeee, she ain't taking me home tonight
She ain't taking me home tonight
I won't pick up the phone tonight
I don't need you anymore I got her
I got her and we gonna be alright.
