

Talked Too Much

Kingdom Come

I wonder who really cares!
What is happening everywhere
TV is bringing the news
More killing, more abuse We've fought too
We've lied too
We've talked too much
I wonder who I can blame
I just can not call a name
No guilt is crossing
My mind
But sadness deep inside We've chosen to shoot us
And now we're the losers
We're fighting day after day
Taking orders and obey
Deep down we're feeling the same
Distrust and fear of pain We've chosen to shoot us
And now we're the loser
