Crossbreed

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

There's a search for you you were wished away
Pissing off fathers that you paid
He waived the cross it flew in the windNow he's looking looking, looking away
Now feel the loss of energy
Feel it till you hear the devil call your nameI feel the same you'll feel the same
The ripping of your skin will make you run away
I feel the same you'll feel the same
Till you hear the devil call your nameNow he searched for God and
He found the way but the road just burned away
The lights go dim and your so called GodIs now looking, looking away now
Feel the loss of energy
Feel it till you hear the devil call your nameAre you still alive I'm still alive
You just cant hear me
I feel the same the devil calls your name
