Superconductor

Opolopo

Packaged like a rebel or a hero
Target mass appeal
To make an audience feel
He really means itPackage the illusion of persona
Careful to conceal
The fact that she's only too real
She's got to screen itHit you in a soft place
A melody so sweet
A strong and simple beat
That you can dance toWatch his every move
Superconductor
Orchestrate illusions
Superconductor
Watch his every move
SuperconductorHoping you'll believe
Designing to deceive
That's entertainmentHe can put a target on the market
Bask in your applause
Reality withdraws
Now he believes itThe role becomes the actor
She's addicted to applause
The stage a world because
She never leaves itHit you in a soft place
With sentimental ease
They know the fantasies
That you romance toWatch her every move
Superconductor
She can manipulate reactions
Superconductor
Watch her every move
SuperconductorPin the donkeys on her tail
Fantasy for sale
That's entertainment
