

Throw Your Arms Around Me

Rogue Traders

Catch my breath with every step
I inhale between every word you say
Oh, yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it againMy pulse races with fingers tracing
I exhale between every look you give
Oh, yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it againSo I just dream away
And then pretend to hear you sayThrow your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
'Til there's no turning backHeat will rise I cannot defy it
It's become obscene, you're the words I mean
Oh, yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it againHow come I feel like I'm gonna die?
Every time you mention my name I feel the same
Oh, yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it againSo I just dream away
And then pretend to hear you sayThrow your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
'Til there's no turning backThrow your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
'Til there's no turning backSo I just dream away
And then pretend to hear you sayThrow your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
'Til there's no turning backThrow your arms around me
Throw your arms around me
Totally surround me
'Til there's no turning backHeat will rise I cannot defy it
It's become obscene you're the words I mean
Oh, yeah
Please begin again, wanna hear it again
