Rainbow Diamond

Mwahaha

I looked but there's no more and when I saw your face was made of doors man these things hit you like no other and the pieces were all gigantically small give them to allsee the silver lining ripped by rainbow diamond everybody's cryin
and each door of your face was made of windows and through every one I could see down each hall the floors climb the walls your sorrow and fortune they're in bed together say goodbye to summerI don't want to talk about it not while the sunshine is shining I can see the silver lining it's breaking through like rainbow diamondsome some some some day day day day
it won't won't won't won't hurt so bad
but to to to today day day
I take myself way too seriously seriously
damn them with faint praise damn them with the sun
all our sorrow and all our fortune
they're in the next room they're in bed together
all our sorrow they're in the next room they're in bed togethersome some some some

seriously
