You Ain't Me

Frank Black

Standing in the light
You're so self congratulatory
So I guess you have the right
To be so masturbatoryAnd like a man with his pet
You always seem to forgetThat you ain't me
You ain't meDid you include the question mark?
When I answered you were totally shocked
You looked at me like I was a snark
While your head was extremely mentally blockedI'm the guy from wonderland
And you could never understandThat you ain't me
You ain't me
You ain't me
No, you ain't meThe money has been spent
I'm not saying it hasn't been earned
The customers have paid
I'm just feeling kind of burnedTell me where have you been
Oh, black-eyed mannequin?You ain't me
You ain't me
You ain't me
You ain't me
