

Fool You Are (Demo)

Lloyd Cole

From Northerton to Northern California
Folk don't really change
And there's always the rain
From Southport Beach to Sunday in the Hamptons
Never could complain
And there's always the rainThe fool you are in Manchester
The fool you are in Maine
The lies you tell in Liverpool
Will follow you to SpainFrom Lambeth walk to London, Ontario
We'd like love to run away
When it looks like rain
From sunset strip to Waterloo underground
The stars are just the same
And it looks like rainThe fool you are in Manchester
The fool you are in Maine
The lies you tell in Liverpool
Will follow you to Spain
The morning after Leicester Square
Is hungover in Rome
And never again in Newcastle
Is one more for the road and it looks like rainFrom the sunshine state to Shaftesbury Avenue
Folk don't really change
And there's always the rain
And the night before in Northern California
Is dawning on the Thames
And it looks like rainThe fool you are in Manchester
The fool you are in Maine
The lies you tell in Liverpool
Will follow you to Spain
The morning after Leicester square
Is hungover in Rome
And never again in Newcastle
Is one more for the road and I should know
