

An Act Of My Own Volition

Luti-Kriss

Rise
Back again on my knees
I thought of you
I've never cried so happy When I breathe out, you breathe me back
The greatest gift I've got is you
When I smile my thoughts are on you No death, no life, no time
(Will take me away)
When it's quiet
I know you're there
To my God, glory Always seeming two thieves at my side
But in you I keep my eyes
You're all I want
Rise Always seeming two thieves at my side
But in you I keep my eyes
You're all I want
Rise
God be pleased
This world has nothing to offer anymore
Come back soon
This world has nothing to offer anymore
Come back soon Welcome back
