

Shout If You Know

Mother Mother

They like to talk about the,
The problems, but the, the problem is-uh,
They can't solve 'em, but they can talk a lot about 'em.
They can talk about the,
The woman, yeah the, the short end, which-uh,
We cannot lengthen, but we can talk at length about 'em. Shout if you know
Shout if you know, if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know
Shout, shout, shout They like to talk about the,
The children, gettin' stepped on by the,
The boot squad, but that don't get 'em steppin' off 'em.
And they can talk about a politic, rhetoric
Derelict, intellect, talk show with American
But I still can't make sense out of it Shout if you know
Shout if you know, if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know
Rock 'n roll if you don't, if you don't know
Rock 'n roll, you gotta keep rockin' if you don't know. Hush up, buttercup.
You talkin' all too often.
Rest your lips, soliloquist
And save it up, save it up, just save it up, yeah.
Pipe down, anchorman.
You've got your story turned around.
Take a tip from the old Carthusians,
And save it up, save it up, just save it up, yeah. Shout if you know
Shout if you know, if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know
Rock 'n roll if you don't, if you don't know
Rock 'n roll, you gotta keep rockin' if you don't know.
Shout if you know
Shout if you know, if you know
Shout if you know
Shout if you know

Shout, shout, shout

Songwriters

GULDEMOND, RYAN LEE
Published by
Lyrics © Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>