5 Days (Time Tools Radio Mix)

Patrick Nuo

It was love at first sight on the second of july
Met her on the third floor
Four times in one night
It was a little bit of magic
And the time stood still
She took me to another side she got the key to my willTell me how could such a good thing only last...
One, two three, four
Five days once in a lifetime
Five nights
Too good to be true
The universe is passin' by
But I can't forget our
One, two, three, fourFive days, sunshine, one way trip
Where she touched my soul when I touched her lips
She said "boy take me to wherever you go destination anywhere"
But destiny said no.Tell me how could such a good thing only last...
One, two three, four
Five days once in a lifetime
Five nights
Too good to be true
The universe is passin' by
But I can't forget our
One, two, three, fourFive days once in a lifetime
Five nights
Too good to be true
The universe is passin' by
But I can't forget our
One, two, three, fourFive days...can't you hear me?
Five nights...where you are?
Five days...can't you fell me?
Five nights...you're still my loveIt was so great when we were together, baby
So great when we were together
It was so great when our days were endless, baby
So great when we were togetherTell me how could such a good thing only last...
One, two three, four
Five days once in a lifetime
Five nights

Too good to be true
The universe is passin' by
But I can't forget our
One, two, three, fourFive days once in a lifetime
Five nights
Too good to be true
