

Chase The Rainbow

Kenny Wayne Shepherd

Well I was caught
I was out of excuses
But I was not
Above re-learnin' all the rules, noBut I found out the hard way
There ain't no color to the blues
Yes I didYeah you can have
All the oil out in Arabia
You can have
All the French girls out in France, yeahIt won't alter the equation
It ain't gonna change the circumstance
Well thisWell love, love, love, love, love, love
Love is what you want
Well love, love, love, love, love, love
Love until' you've got it, yeah
You will never be satisfied
You're gonna chase the rainbow blind, yeahYeah if I'm wrong
It ain't gonna hurt nobody
But if I'm not
Nothin's ever gonna change
Until' we quit with all this mess
And let love win the day, yeahWell love, love, love, love, love, love
Love is what you want
Well love, love, love, love, love, love
Love until' you've got it, oh yeah
You will never be satisfied
You're gonna chase the rainbow blind yeahYeah love, love, love, love, love, love
Love is what you want, yes yes
I said, "Well love, love, love, love, love, love
Love until' you've got it"
It' all you need
You will never be satisfied
You're gonna chase the rainbow blind
Won't tell you againNow love, love, love, love, love, love
Love is what you want
Yes it is
Yeah love, love, love, love, love, love
Love is what you need
It' all you need
You will never be satisfied

You're gonna chase the rainbow blind
