

Watching You

Natalia Kills

I'm standing outside on your momma's lawn
And it's 5 am, got your curtains drawn,
Been 25 times that I called...
But, I know that you love me.
Now I'm all dressed up and I know that you're here
Boy it's just a little rain, no these ain't no tears
Every moment passed is a thousand years
Since you loved me...And out of all the stupid boys I knew
I had to fall for you
And out of all the pretty lies you told
Can't one of them be true?When you wake up, I'll still believe you're mine...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you
Sleep all night with a stranger on my side...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.
No no no, this was not the plan,
If I can't have you then no one can.
When you wake up, I'll still be here outside
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.Happy Hour ain't so happy when you got no friends
And who knew I'd find an angel at the gates of Hell?
Your glass was always empty, but your bed was full
When you loved me...
You gave me back my key, but you still have my heart
Are all the dreams of you and me in broken frames in your garbage?
The other guys with their honest eyes
Just can't love me...And out of all the stupid boys I knew
I had to fall for you
And out of all the pretty lies you told
Can't one of them be true?When you wake up, I'll still believe you're mine...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you
Sleep all night with a stranger on my side...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.
No no no, this was not the plan,
If I can't have you then no one can.
When you wake up, I'll still be here outside
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.Loving you is like a chainsaw to my heart,
But we're more beautiful with every single scar.
The words you promised, laying on the backseat of your car...
But like a bad, bad dream you leave me in the dark...When you wake up, I'll still believe you're mine...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you

Sleep all night with a stranger on my side...
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.
No no no, this was not the plan,
If I can't have you then no one can.
When you wake up, I'll still be here outside
Oooh oooh, I'm watching you.
