Now that he has no sense of destination

Now he's running for the love of speed

When the child goes bad it's no cause for celebration

Like Jimmy Dean he don't talk back to me Failures as fathers, Mothers to chaos

No baby, no baby, no baby no CHORUS

Hallo humans can you feel me thinking

I assume you're seeing everything I'm thinking

Hallo humans nothing starts tomorrow

I'm the baby now Baby (repeat to end of chorus)
