

Arabian Queen

Anjali

Arabian queen right on the scene
Riding along in her cinematic dream
I am the queen of this harem
I got my veil on and I'm feeling serene
Arabian highs, hear the sundown sigh
Let's gather round the hookah
Blowing circles to the sky
Arabian dreams everybody seems and she says
Hold on her heels swinging girl of sin
With her jewel-encrusted gown
And her belly swinging brown
Sold all her sins and everybody sway through the hazy days
With rubies on her toes everybody knows
She's the queen of the sand, the desert and the land
A breeze like mango kulli a little hoochie koochie
And she says
Cocooned in silken shrouds and jasmine scented clouds
She's the queen of the harem you know who wears the crown
She teases and she sleazes you know it never ceases
When she does her voodoo
Sweet as almond honey
A lick of chunky monkey
She's sticky like jalebi
I don't wanna hear a maybe
Let's do the chunky monkey
Let's do the chunky monkey
She's sweet sweet, sweet sweet
And do the chunky monkey
