Take It All

Kelly Rowland

so many bumps, blocking the road.
but theres no stopping me.
so many doubts, hard to let go.
but i gotta set em free.
no more clouds, the suns come out.
i wont run away.
no more blame, its time for change.
cause now im awake.
nothings gonna hold me back, so im gonna take it all.
take it all, take it all, take it all.
break down these walls, cause im gonna take it all.
yeah im gonna take it all.
take it all, take it all, take it all.
im standing tall, cause im gonna take it all.
yeah im gonna take it all.
out on your own, with no hand to hold.

i know you can make it right.
if you're left in the cold, with no where to go.
then don't be afraid to fight.
so when its right in front of you, say im gonna take it all.
take it all, take it all, take it all.
break down these walls, cause im gonna take it all.
im standing tall, cause im gonna take it all.
yeah im gonna take it all.
im strong independant, yes ima winnin'
im taking control.
so close i can feel it, and when i get it
im never letting go.
im strong independant, yes ima winnin'
im taking control.
