Solo (Album Version)

Leo Sayer

Used to see him hanging around everywhere
In a world of his own
See him hanging round street corners where
We would meet
He was a lonely kid
Now they tell us that he's moved on
Aint been seen for so long
Don't know here he's gone
It's been so long, but I'm on the road
And though it ain't been easy
At least I made it on my own
My tongue's been tied for far too long
And now your gonna hear me
At least I now where I belong
S.O.L.O. I'm on the road
Hello hello, I'm on my own
Ah y'see everybody's got someone
To lay their troubled lives upon
I'm really glad I've only got my own
Once upon a time, well I had lots of friends
I moved freely through their lives
But two's a couple and, well three's a crowd
I was just left out
Hanging around
I've had as much now as I can take
There ain't no need to stay
S.O.L.O. I'm on the road
Hello hello, I'm all alone
Ah yes everybody smiles at me
As I go walking by
But I'm really glad I've only got my own
S.O.L.O. I'm all alone
S.O.L.O. I'm going down the road
