Human

Jon Mclaughlin

Can you tell me how we got in this situation
I can't seem to get you off my mind
All these ups and downs, they trip up our good intentions
Nobody said this was easy, right?
After all, we're only human
Always fighting what we're feeling, hurt, instead of healing
And after all, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving, after all?
Can we get back to the point of this conversation
When we saw things through each other's eyes
'Cause now all I see is ruin and devastation
We need someplace we can hide inside
And after all, we're only human
Always fighting what we're feeling, hurt, instead of healing
And after all, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving
I'm smart enough to know that life goes by
And it leaves a trail of broken bones behind
If you feel I'm letting go, just give me time
I'll come running to your side
Can you tell me how we got in this situation
I can't seem to get you off my mind
'Cause after all, we're only human
Always fighting what we're feeling, hurt, instead of healing
After all, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving?
After all, we're only human
Always fighting what we're feeling, hurt, instead of healing
After all, we're only human
Is there any other reason why we stay instead of leaving, after all?
Any other reason, stay instead of leaving, after all
Yeah
