

Blue Ocean Floor

Justin Timberlake

Frequencies so low

Heart on a string

A string that only plays solos

Rain made of echoes

Tidal wave rushing on and on Under the water you scream so loud but the silence surrounds you
But I hear it loud and you fall in the deep and I'll always find you If my red eyes don't see you anymore

And I can't hear you through the white noise

Just send your heartbeat I'll go to the blue ocean floor

Where they find us no more

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor Shell made out of gold

Found on a beach picked up and you held so close

Rain washed out it's glow

Heartbeat steadily leads me down below Under the water you scream so loud but the silence surrounds you
But I hear it loud and you fall in the deep and I'll always find you If my red eyes don't see you anymore

And I can't hear you through the white noise

Just send your heartbeat I'll go to the blue ocean floor

Where they find us no more

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor 20,000 leagues away, catch up to you on the same day

Travel at the speed of light, thinking the same thoughts at the same time

Heartbeat set at steady pace, I'll let the rhythm show me the way

No one can find us here, fade out and disappear If my red eyes don't see you anymore

And I can't hear you through the white noise

Just send your heartbeat I'll go to the blue ocean floor

Where they find us no more

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor

On that blue ocean floor
