Fire

The O.C. Supertones

Here is a question,
Who are the pure?
What is the thing you're livin' for?
The world says to grow up 'cause nothin' is true,
What I believe is right for me
What you believe is right for you
Some call it the new day
I call it the ice age
They believe in nothing
We believe in one thing.
They're afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire,
Same old deception in a brand new disguise.
What's good and evil?
You decide,
God says who he is,
And no one is higher,
God is true while men are liars.
God dosn't change with your desires,
They get defensive,
Truth is so offensive.
They believe in nothing,
We believe in onr thing.
Afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire,
Fire is faith and passion,
Fire is tranformation,
So do you wanna cool it?
Fan the flame when it glows,
They're afraid to be inspired,
All that we desire is fire.
