

Red Rose (feat. Noah Gordon)

Charlie Farley

She Was So Young innocent it don't make sense what's the reason for this God if you got a plain then tell me what it is cause I'm lost look all I want to know is why the memories why the giliten feels like my head been is killing me and then turn around try to put all my faith in you the one that took her from us I won't lie it was hard I still got scars won't heal never will look every year there's another January the 5th I take another sip sit and remembrance and when I get down I remember this I know your in heaven now your smiling as your looking down you'll always be a part of me I still miss you and I still believe the good Lord has a bigger plain I'm beginning to understand why he choosed you I guess God needs a red rose to yeah good times we had a few as I sit an cry I think if I only knew I would have kissed you and told you I loved you that morning before I left to go to school but I didn't now I'm rembermissing it's January the 22nd you should have been 21 by how time fly's I got a daughter an a son now
my girl you meet her name I showed them pictures of you and told them you loved them the same as me it's plain to see even at the age of 3 both of them know exactly what the meaning of making means cause even after all this time your still my light that light the shines leading my way I know your in heaven now your smiling as your looking down you'll always be a part of me I still miss you and I still believe the good Lord has a bigger plain I'm beginning to understand why he choosed you I guess God needs a red rose to yeah you know there comes a point in everyone's life where you feel like giving up but there's times like these I think about my sister and know it don't get to bad because the pain the, the hurt, the tears, the years without her with me here on earth wondering when I will see her again knowing I know your in heaven know now your smiling as your looking down you'll always be a part of me I still miss you an I still believe the good Lord has a bigger plain im beginning to understand why he choosed you I guess God needs a red rose to
