It Wasn't Me

Evidence

[Intro]
Uh, about to tell you who I are
Came a long way and I still got so far to go
Tee off with this trademark flow
And after tonight
Imma let the whole world know
My name is Evidence[Hook]
You aint got no
Evidence, evidence, evidence, evidence[Verse 1]
If this is crime scene cinema
All the weak shops closed
Is it back to charging motherfuckers 4 for an O?
I dont know
I keep a rotary phone
So I remember all the numbers of my homies who gone
Proof is in the pudding
Im pressed up and labeled evidence
But never chasing fame, dragons, chicks, or dead presidents
Dreams, but never snatch chains of any measurements
Because of my name, for every fuckin crime they find the relevance
Choices in my life that I want to correct
I got voices in my head that I want to forget
Uh and I dont live with regret
But Ive been living with a chick while other chicks try to text
It wasnt me[Hook]
You aint got no
Evidence (Theres no proof without the)
Evidence (Who wants truth without the)
Evidence, evidence[Verse 2]
Yeah, my first album only had underground appearances
So whats the outcome?
Im still an underground lyricist
And fame dont even capture what my interest is Im halfway to famous, halfway away from infamous
My naked eyes are like my memory chips
Everything digested comes up when I spit
I say so be it
Without a whistle, call it how I see it (Yeah)
Whether in my boundaries or in another region

Im speeding on the highway with my girl shotty
Keep a plant in my car, like Good Friday
Keep my world Godly
I stay grounded like my lobby
Tag a bucket on the wall but never tatted on my body
My music and my graf are livin separate lifes
One gets me paid, the others payin the price
Either way theyll say Im spraying at night
But how the fuck, when Im touring overseas on a flight
It wasnt me[Hook][Verse 3]
The flows connected like I knew people
Director of photography, I shoot people
Named by Will.I.Am
Maybe made a milli, maybe I dont give a damn (True)
I thought of evident
I mispronounced it, Evidence
Fast forward, here we are, standing in the present tense
I never thought about fame
I just thought about if KRS would know my name
But since then its like so much has changed
Body baggin the shows, they say Im killing the stage
It wasnt me[Hook]
