Come

Kinnie Starr

Come, come let's sleep
Come, come let's sleep
And in the mornings, I wake satisfied
Because the first thing I see is your eyesAnd it makes me wanna stumble into my day
I like to try things your way
Thinking about them your wayThis is how I pray
This is how I pray
By checking myself at the peak of each bright day
To chock it all up doing all in the painfully perfect wayAny rains come, I'm gonna bring back a new sun
By checking ourselves at the peak of each bright day
To chock it all up doing all in the painfully perfect way
Any rains come, I'm gonna bring back a new sunCome, come let's sleep
See, I will still play it all out my way
And you can say what it is you need to say
'Cause I am your disciple and mentor either way
You're learning everything about everything
So that we can stayThis is how I pray, yes
This is how I pray
By checking myself at the peak of each bright day
To chock it all up doing all in the painfully perfect wayAny rains come, I'm gonna bring back a new sun
By checking ourselves at the peak of each bright day
To chock it all up doing all in the painfully perfect way
Any rains come, I'm gonna bring back a new sunCome, come let's sleep
Come, come let's sleep
Now that we know the meaning of love
Come, come let's sleep
Now that the skies are watching us from aboveCome, come let's sleep
Now that we know the meaning of love
Come, come let's sleep
Now that the skies are watching us from aboveCome, come let's sleep
Now that we know the meaning of love
Come, come let's sleep
Now that the skies are watching us from aboveCome, come let's sleep, my, baby
Come, come let's sleep
Come, come let's sleep, my, baby
Come, come let's sleep
