Tears

Ian Van Dahl

The day you walked into my life
I opened up my heart to you.
...my heart to you.
I always thought that you and I could stand the test of time.[Chorus:]
Now tears are falling.
..tears are falling.
Nothing else that I can do.
Tears are falling.
...tears are falling.
Nothing else that I can do.All those tears in your eyes...
can't comfort me.
So tell me right now...
what you decide.
All those tears in your eyes...
can't confort me.
All those tears in your eyes...
I think I'm better off without youTell me why you try to hide...
all the secrets deep inside.
...deep inside.
So baby, tell me face to face...
are you gonna stay?[Chorus]All those tears in your eyes...
can't comfort me.
So tell me right now...
what you decide.
All those tears in your eyes...
I think I'm better off without you
