

My Own Lane

Enkay47

Verse 1: Yeah, anyways... I just gotta brand new car/I just gotta brand new house/I just gotta brand new wife with a brand new life/and I've gotta million in my account/I don't like the sound/I don't like the hair/I don't like the contacts that I gotta wear/but if I gotta do this stuff to get your attention, then imma get your attention/and I don't really give a f*** about the new hair! (Who's there?)/I'm the little f*** with the blue wig/people looking at me and they thinking I'm a nuisance/sitting in the back of the class sniffing glue sticks/(hey can I have some?) yeah, here's a few Nick/yo Miss Stolfus, I've gotta go to the bathroom (but you just went)/yo I promise I'll be back soon/I grabbed the pass then I walked outta the classroom/everybody looking at me telling me "yo that's cool"

Chorus: You don't know my name (know my name) but that's okay/this is so insane (so insane) this is so great/I don't got no fame (got no fame) but that's okay/yeah, but it's okay, I'll be in my own lane X2

Verse 2: I just gotta brand new car/I just gotta brand new house/I just gotta brand new wife with a brand new life/and I've gotta million in my account/I don't like the sound/I don't like the hair/I don't like the contacts that I gotta wear/but if I gotta do this stuff to get your attention, then imma get your attention/and I don't really give a f*** about the new hair! (Who's there?)/I'm another rapper with the same sound, with the same look, with the same style/with the blue hair/oh that's lame how, do you think you're gonna get that fame now?/cuz I keep it real/I'm being honest about how I feel/and I'm making music to help out the people that's been through I've been through to help them to heal/I do this for real

Chorus: You don't know my name (know my name) but that's okay/this is so insane (so insane) this is so great/I don't got no fame (got no fame) but that's okay/yeah, but it's okay, I'll be in my own lane X2

Verse 3: To all my fans... I know that lately you're noticing changes/I guarantee you that imma be Nathan/there ain't no way I could ever replace you/everything you've done for me is amazing/yeah, and I hope you stay, but if you don't stay/then you don't deserve to be part of the changes... I'm trying to find my own lane/I'm just trying to find my own lane/I said I'm trying to find my own lane/I'm just trying to find my own way, in my own lane

Chorus: You don't know my name (know my name) but that's okay/this is so insane (so insane) this is so great/I don't got no fame (got no fame) but that's okay/yeah, but it's okay, I'll be in my own lane
