

I'm Sorry

Roxette

The first time we met, time stood still
You left me breathless, suddenly speechless
Within the hour we were one
Two totally strangers kissing the moonlight Oh, you know I'm sorry I had to go
I'm really sorry it had to die
I'm really sorry I made you cry
Cry We fell in love between the nights
Of too many lovers and too many tear drops
And fate won't resist some satin sheets
I was so helpless, totally ruthless Oh you know I'm sorry I had to go
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry you're hurt inside
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry I made you cry
Cry, cry Love is lifting you up and dragging you down
Makes you go round and round and round
Time makes us stop then it's all gone
Funny how memories keep linger on Oh, you know I'm sorry I had to go
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry it had to die
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry I made you cry
(I'm really sorry) You know I'm sorry I had to go
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry you're hurt inside
(I'm really sorry)
I'm really sorry I made you cry
(I'm really sorry)
Cry, cry I'm really sorry
(I'm really sorry)
Cry, cry
(I'm really sorry)
Cry, cry
(I made you cry)
